

The Knowledge Bank at The Ohio State University

Ohio State Engineer

Title: Television Miracles Ahead

Issue Date: 1945-03

Publisher: Ohio State University, College of Engineering

Citation: Ohio State Engineer, vol. 28, no. 4 (March, 1945), 31.

URI: <http://hdl.handle.net/1811/36146>

—Courtesy of General Electric.

TELEVISION MIRACLES AHEAD

Above is an actual photograph taken at the General Electric studio WRGB during a wrestling match. In the days to come, (nobody predicting when) you can sit in your own home and enjoy the thrills of great sports events brought to your receiver by television.

Below is the little tube which will make possible the radio relaying of FM or television programs. This disk-seal tube operates in regions of the spectrum impractical of use before the war.

